To our advisors, Mr. Holland Capper and Miss Kari Natalie Reed, whose time and efforts have been so generously given us all alike, we wish to dedicate this annual.

We shall always remember Mr. Capper as a true leader who spared no effort to make our high-school days more enjoyable. He filled the position of advisor not as a duty but rather as a pleasure and privilege.

We shall always remember Miss Reed as one upon whom we could rely for suggestions and practical help of all kinds. Our success in many of our projects was made possible by her marked ability to organize and direct.

Don't You Think I'd Make A Good One?

As I was walking along a dark alley something from behind came down on my head knocking me senseless, but instead of waking up fifty years hence, and finding out the occupations of my fellow classmates, I woke up immediately and decided to ask the seniors now what their ambition was. Here is what that they told me.

Last Will And Testament

Instead of the customary Last Will And Testament, which usually fails to include students who have attained worth while honors, we wish to set forth on this page the names and achievements of some of our most outstanding seniors. Each of these Seniors bequeaths fully and unconditionally his honors and achievements to any or all of you who are willing to put forth the personal effort necessary to attain them.

Eugene Bock had the distinction of being a member of the First High-School Clinic Band, in which band he was rated among the highest.

Gene Christianson was chosen Best Thespian for 1937 because of his outstanding dramatic ability.

James Hainer had the honor of being judged the best speaker by Professor Robinson of Albion College in the Muskegon-Manistee debate and in other contests also.

Irene Smith was selected by the senior class and faculty as the best citizen of the senior class. This was a signal honor which she well deserved.

Marijane Daniels, Bryce Emunson, Lois Johnson, Ruth Krueger and Elizabeth Lakos are outstanding for their regularity in school attendance, not having missed a day in four years of high school.

Those students who have earned high grades in school are surely worthy of being placed on this page. We shall enumerate below the top twenty-five students of our class and their averages for the four years of high school. The following system of grading is used: 4—A, 3—B, 2—C.

Marijane Daniels	4.00	Dorothy Raatz	3.39
Arthur Holmer	4.00	Adela Larsen	3.25
Irene Smith	4.00	Suzanne Van Hise	3.17
Eugene Bock	3.96	Elizabeth Lakos	3.10
Bryce Emunson	3.96	Ruth Krueger	3.07
Doris McNeil	3.60	James Eddy	3.03
Allan Sorenson	3.58	Martha Campbell	2.96
Peggy Meier	3.57	Lawrence Grabowski	2.93
Bettigail Thompson	3.50	James Hainer	2.88
Edith Hansen	3.46	Hilda Marie Holmes	2.78
Eleanore Lundbom	3.42	Margaret Kraus	2.78
Helen Pearce	3.42	Rosemary Walsh	2.78
Vivien Nelson		2.75

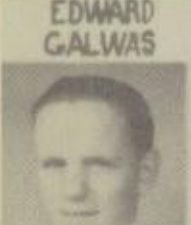

The class of '37 does not boast a long list of varsity letter winners in football and basketball, probably due to the fact that most of our boys were interested in scholastic and dramatic fields. We are proud, however, to list the following.

FOOTBALL: Bryce Emunson 4, John Jaratz 3-4, Sidney Kann 4, Floyd Rozga 3-4.

BASKETBALL: Arthur Holmer 4, Clare McKinley 4, William McKinley 3, Joseph Moran 3, Donald Nelson 3-4, Floyd Rozga 3-4.

Freshmen Literary Page

In view of the fact that liar's contests were so popular this year we thought it only proper to include two "tall tales" which were written by talented Freshmen.

How I Killed The Gallywampus

One day when I was hunting in the great woods of Northern Michigan I came upon the tracks of a gallywampus, which you all know is an animal like a dinosaur but about three times as large. I followed these tracks for about a mile when all of a sudden what should come over the hill but the largest gallywampus I had ever seen. As I ran from this huge beast I had but one thought, and that was to get to a flat place, for as you all know, a gallywampus roams in the hills so much that two legs are short and two are long. He was almost upon me so I shot at him, but it did not stop him so I pulled out my hunting knife and as he lowered his head to chop me in two, I jumped between his enormous teeth, slid down his throat, stabbed him in the heart and he dropped over dead. Now what was I to do inside a great dead beast who had his mouth shut? I soon thought up the idea of cutting through his side, and I was successful in my venture. After exhibiting the heart and making $50,000, I paid for the special railroad which I had built in order to haul the heart around.

—Philip Beauvais

What A Game

About fifty years ago this noon, when we used baseball bats for kindling wood, I played a game of ball. It was my turn at bat but we ran short of bats. What do you think I did? Why, I glued a box of toothpicks together. I hit the ball to the pitcher, Dizzey Dean's youngest son. It was such a hot one that it melted in his hand. While I rode around the bases in a V-8, the crowd cheered and began throwing money at me! Before I reached third base, I had $500 in cash. When I crossed home plate, the catcher was frozen stiff, while the fielders wiped the sweat (yes, I said sweat) off their brow. At the end of the game we won 1-0 favor of them.

Eighth Grade Literary Page

Several eighth graders submitted themes on industry, and humorous poems. The staff thought it best to print the winning themes and poem as they were given to us without any major changes.

My Favorite Manistee Product

Salt is my favorite Manistee product. Salt is one of those things of life; one without which we cannot get along. Besides being indispensable for domestic purposes, it is used in the meat packing and ice-cream industries. In this part of the country, where we have icy winters, salt is used on steps to prevent falling.

Salt is manufactured here in two plants, one of which is the most modern salt plant in the world. Salt is exported in huge quantities. Often as many as twenty to twenty-five carloads are sent from one plant in a single day. Salt is one of the best paying Manistee products.

— Betty May Axce

My Favorite Manistee Product

My favorite Manistee product is Filer Craft paper. The paper is manufactured in large quantities in different colors and textures. It is shipped outside Manistee by boat, rail, and overland freight.

Filer Craft is used almost exclusively by our own merchants and townspeople.

The Company makes a raw product that is shipped to other mills and is made into finer grades such as stationery, tissue, and crepe paper. They also make gum tape that is used in place of twine to do up parcels and bundles. A small by-product which they are gradually dropping is paper sacks. Here in Manistee they also make paper boxes.

The manufacture of paper is one of the industries which has helped to make Manistee an important city. I believe it ranks in importance with the salt plants, furniture factory, and the garment factory.

—Marion Heffelfinger

Three of a Cat's Nine Lives

I had a little cat,
His name was Jack,
I threw him in a pond,
But he came back.

I put him on a post
And shot the little cur,
And when I got home
He was licking off his fur

I took him to the shed
And chopped off his head,
But when I reached the house,
There he sat with head in mouth.

One Act Plays

To give a part to all Drama Club members during the year, the club presented a series of assembly plays of one act. Miss Henchey was general supervisor and director of the three plays given the first semester, while Allan Sorenson was student-director, Bob Hanson was electrician, and Jane Wellman and Barbara Whalen were property managers.

A comedy, "Elmer," was the first presentation. Jack Turner played the title role; Barbara Whalen played his sister Susan; Kay Barnes and Lorraine Friedman, the twins, Jeanie and Janie; Miss Pinney was played by Peggy Meier; Vera Mix played Mrs. Collier; Suzanne VanHise played the colored maid, Fannie Belle; Gene Christiansen acted Hubert Brown, and Bob Hanson played Russell Jameson. Mate, Jack's dog, was Pansy.

"In The Light of the Star," a fantasy, was given as the Christmas play. Art. Holmer portrayed Sir Humphrey Burnham; Gilman Gambs, the butler, Samuel Pruffles; John Peterson was Humphrey Jr.; Peter Murphy played Henry Rogers; Jane Wellman was his wife, Anny. Patricia Wellman was "The Christ Child," and Bryce Emunson was the Angel.

No doubt the hardest to produce was the drama, "Storm Before Sunset." The part of Stanley was taken by Carl Exner; Grahame by Jerome Derengoski; Parker by Leslie Laskey; Bendall by Gene Christiansen; Mrs. Bendall by Paula Zank; Uvalinda was played by Helen Mertens and Marjorie by Virginia Anderson.

Drama Club Play

For their annual three-act play presentation, the Drama Club this year selected a fast-moving comedy, "Mistakes At The Blakes," by Guernsey Le-Pelley. The members of the cast gave excellent and interesting interpretations of the roles assigned them. A large audience was present both nights of the play's production, and enjoyed the many laugh-lines the play presented. The cast, under the direction of Miss Helen Henchey, was as follows:

Gary Blake		Dennis Shea
Tom Blake		Donald Snape
Mrs. Perkins		Evelyn Pepera
Mr. Carter		Gene Christianson
Ducky Lucky		Dorthy Simske
Roberta		Phidelas Ziemba
Billikins		Edmund Knaffle
Ike		Bob Hanson
Mike		Leslie Laskey
Mrs. Greengas		Suzanne VanHise
Mrs. Carter		Cleora Forth
Mrs. Pinkle		Katherine Owens
A Nurse		Marjorie Wolters

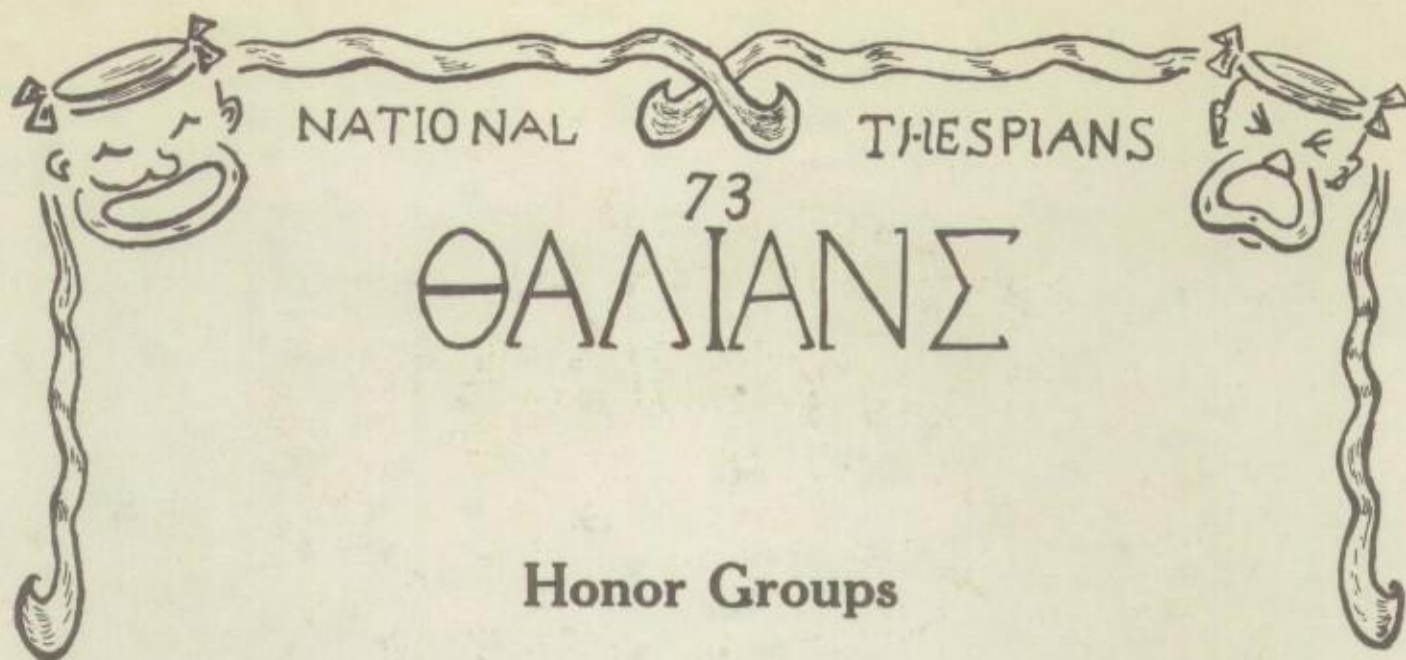

Junior Play

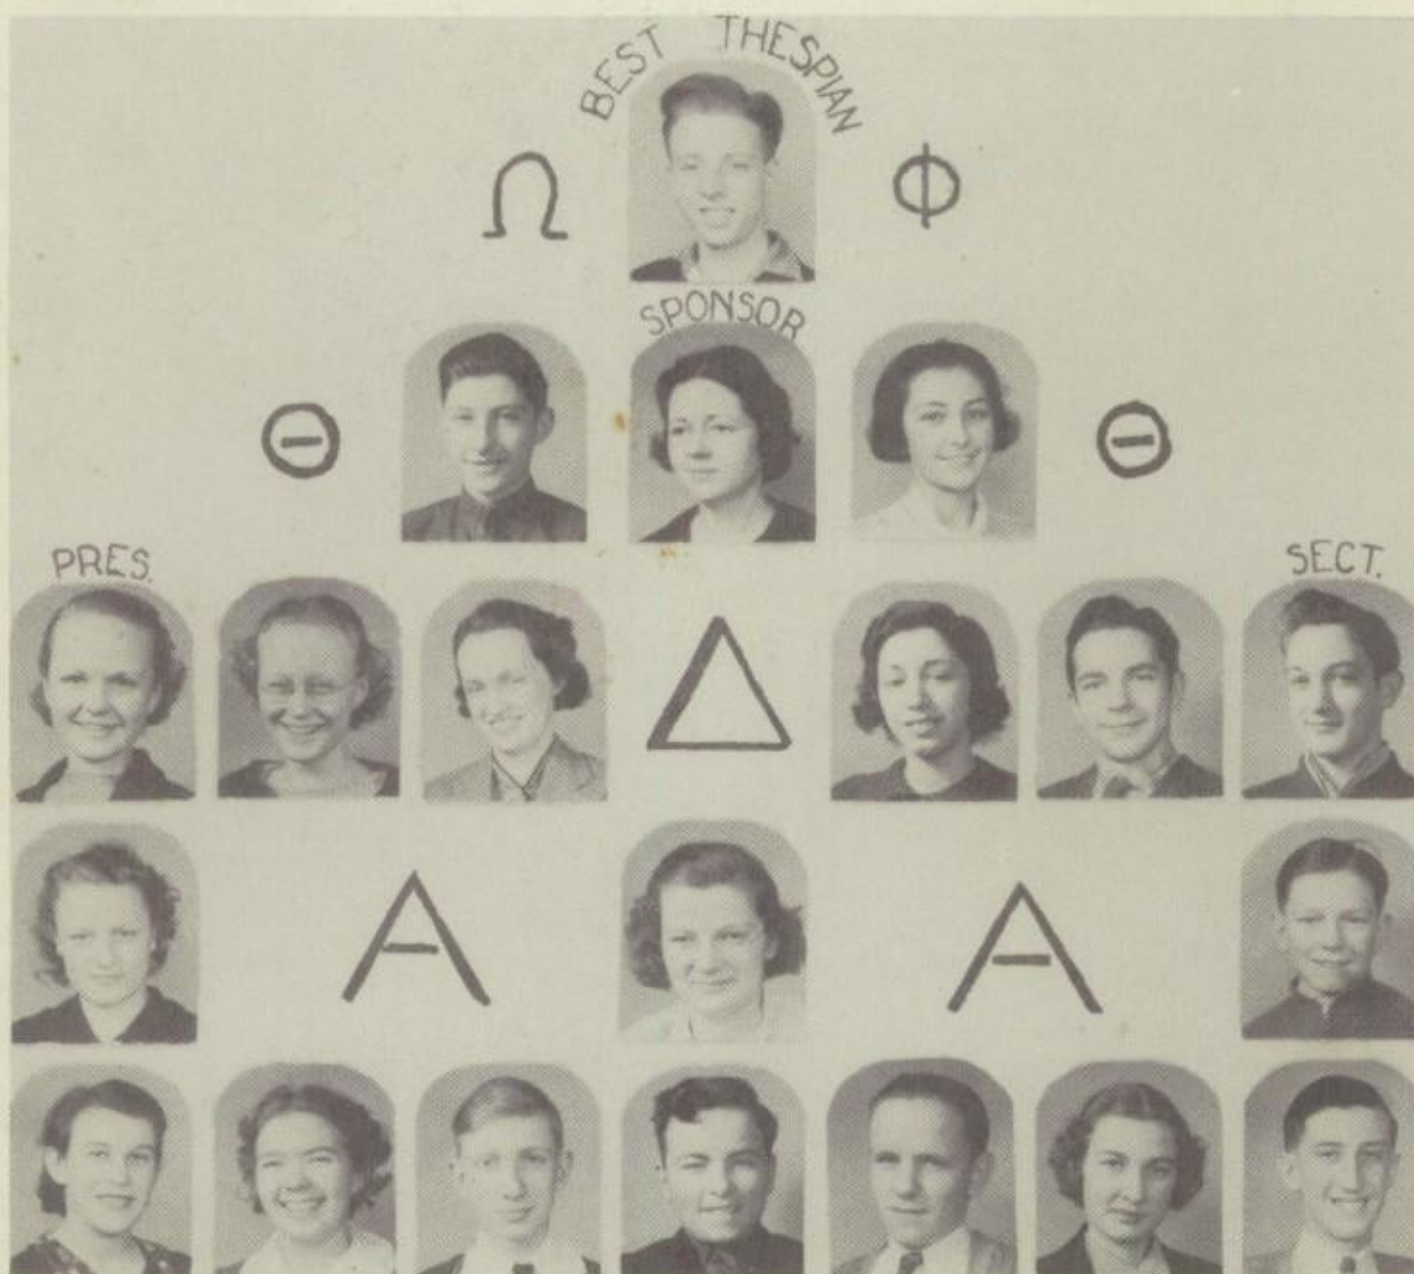

The Junior Play, "Icebound", capably directed by Miss Thomas, lived up to its New York performance reputation in its presentation by the Junior Class with the following well selected cast:

Henry Jordan	Edmund Knaffle
Emma, his wife	Cleora Forth
Nettie, her daughter by a former marriage	Katherine Owens
Sadie Fellows, a widow, once Sadie Jordan	Helen Chadwick
Orin, her son	Glen Pierson
Ella Jordan, an unmarried sister	Wanda McIntosh
Ben Jordan	Dennis Shea
Judge Bradford	Harry Sponnoble
Jane Crosby, a servant	Frances Piechowiak
Hannah, a servant	Dorothy Christenson
Jim Jay, a deputy sheriff	Robert Knudstrup
Dr. Curtis	Robert Peterson

The plot begins with the death of Mr. Jordan, mother of the Jordans in the cast, who leaves her estate to Jane Crosby with secretly expressed hopes that Jane will make a home for her favorite son, Ben, who has led a somewhat reckless life. Work on the estate and Jane's encouragement builds a new character in Ben, who in the closing scene declares his love for Jane.

Archery Club

Archery practice began in the spring of 1936 and continued all summer with practices held at First Street Beach. Last fall a meeting of all those who had been practicing was held and the following officers were elected: President, Eleanore Glocheski; Vice President, Ray Johnson; Sec'y-Treas., Audrey Swanson; and Miss Helen Augst, Sponsor. Through the efforts of Lyman Dinson, Recreational Director, an Archery course was erected at the Marsh Ravine, where practices were held until late in the fall. The one social meeting was a picnic held September 29. During the winter months, practices were held in the high school gym. The outstanding social event of the winter practices was a supper and initiation of four new members, bringing the club membership to twenty members. A tournament with suitable awards is being planned for the spring.

Archery is a competitive sport which has as its purpose good marksmanship, grace of movements, and the improvement of poor posture.

JIM HAINER

VIRGINIA RACINE

JEROME DERENCOSKI

Speech

James Hainer, Virginia Racine, and Jerome Derencoski represented Manistee in the state contests of the Michigan High School Forensic Association. Hainer's oration was entitled "Succeeding With What You Have." Munson's "To the Boys and Girls of Michigan" was Virginia's winning declamation, while Jerome spoke on the social security act.

Late each spring the eighth, ninth, and tenth grades compete in a poetry reading festival conducted by members of Mr. Krause's speech class. Last year's festival was devoted entirely to Rudyard Kipling, in honor of that famous English poet.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross Council of Manistee High School inspired by the messages brought back by Dennis Shea and Suzanne Van Hise, who were delegates to a national Junior Red Cross convention in Chicago, made this an outstanding year in its accomplishments. This is the first year that the high school has contributed more to the Red Cross than any of the grade schools. Receipts of a vaudeville show sponsored by Mr. Suda and Mr. Arnold for the council were sent to aid flood relief sufferers. Shea, Van Hise, Pepera, Solberg, and Krause are members of the council.

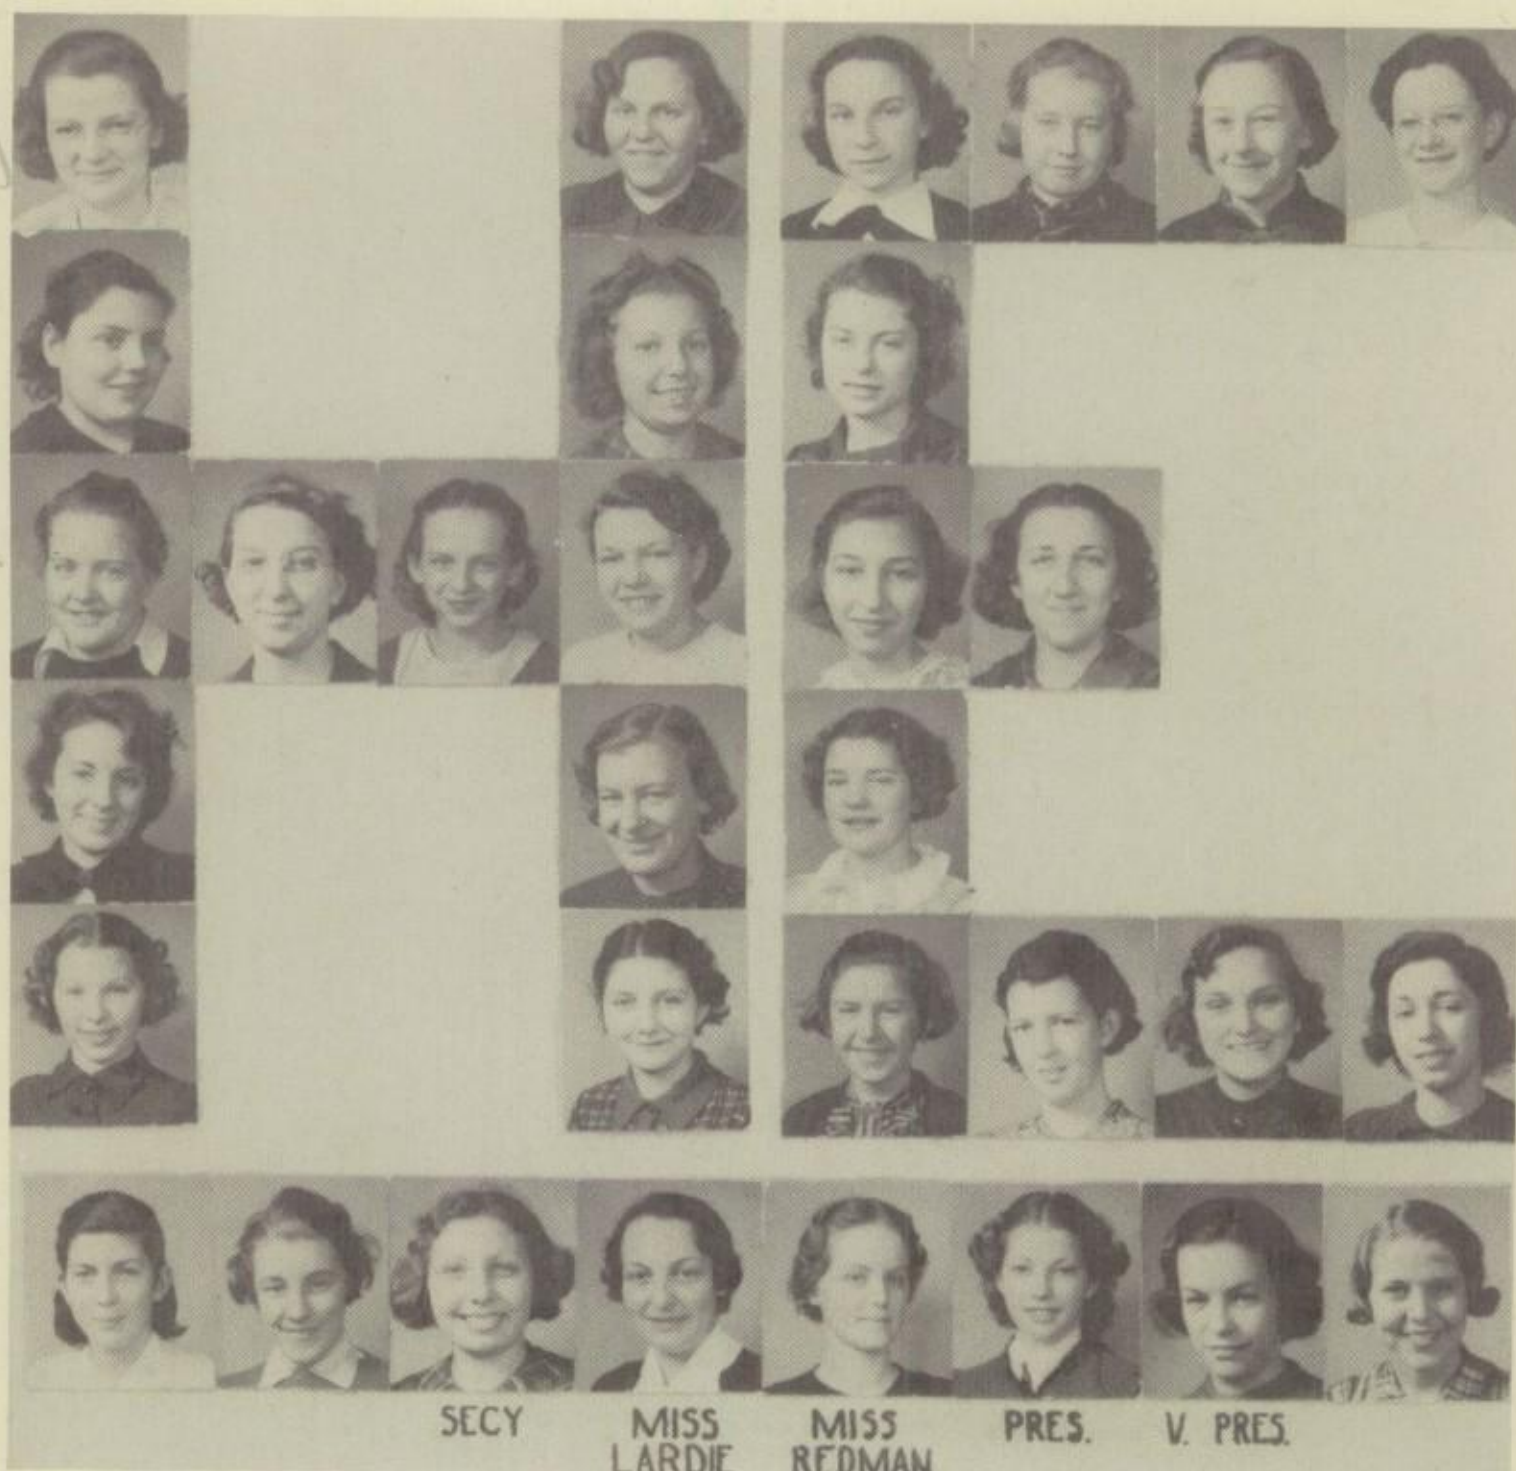

Hi - Y Club

"Our purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Meetings were held twice a month either at noon or in the evening. At the noon luncheon meetings the club greatly profited by the educational and interesting talks presented by the various local men. The club packed a basket at Christmas for a needy family in the community and gave fifteen dollars for flood relief. We also plan to help finance two representatives who will attend the State Hi-Y Camp Conference, held the last of August at Camp Hayo-Went-Ha, on Torch Lake. Mr. Radtke, our advisor is greatly responsible for the very successful year the club has just finished.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is composed of girls who have taken or are now taking Home Economics. In order to become a member, each girl must have an average of "C" in her Home Economics Work.

The purpose of the club is to promote pleasant social affairs in school and to develop interest in the Home Economics Department.

Our Club meetings are held the first Monday of every month either during the activity period or after school. The outstanding social function sponsored by the club this year was the annual dance at which time the girls were privileged to bring the boys as their guests.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club was organized last spring under the direction of Miss Augst. Only advanced shorthand students are eligible for club membership.

The purpose of the club is to promote a professional attitude among the members and increase professional and social contacts through informal talks by prominent local business people during the year. The members of the club visited several of the local business offices to become acquainted with the business procedure of that particular office and to see the different types of equipment in action.

During the year, good fellowship was shared at an outdoor party and closer friendships were made at a club dinner.

Assemblies

This year's assemblies have been a marked success, combining the best of our local talent with excellent programs furnished by the Northwest Assembly Association. We were privileged to hear many able speakers on various subjects. These speakers included Geraldine Westabey, who spoke on "My Friend Abroad," Rev. Fry, who talked to the girls and boys separately on subjects of interest to each, and Mr. Schulz, who gave a talk on "Money, What It Is and How To Have It."

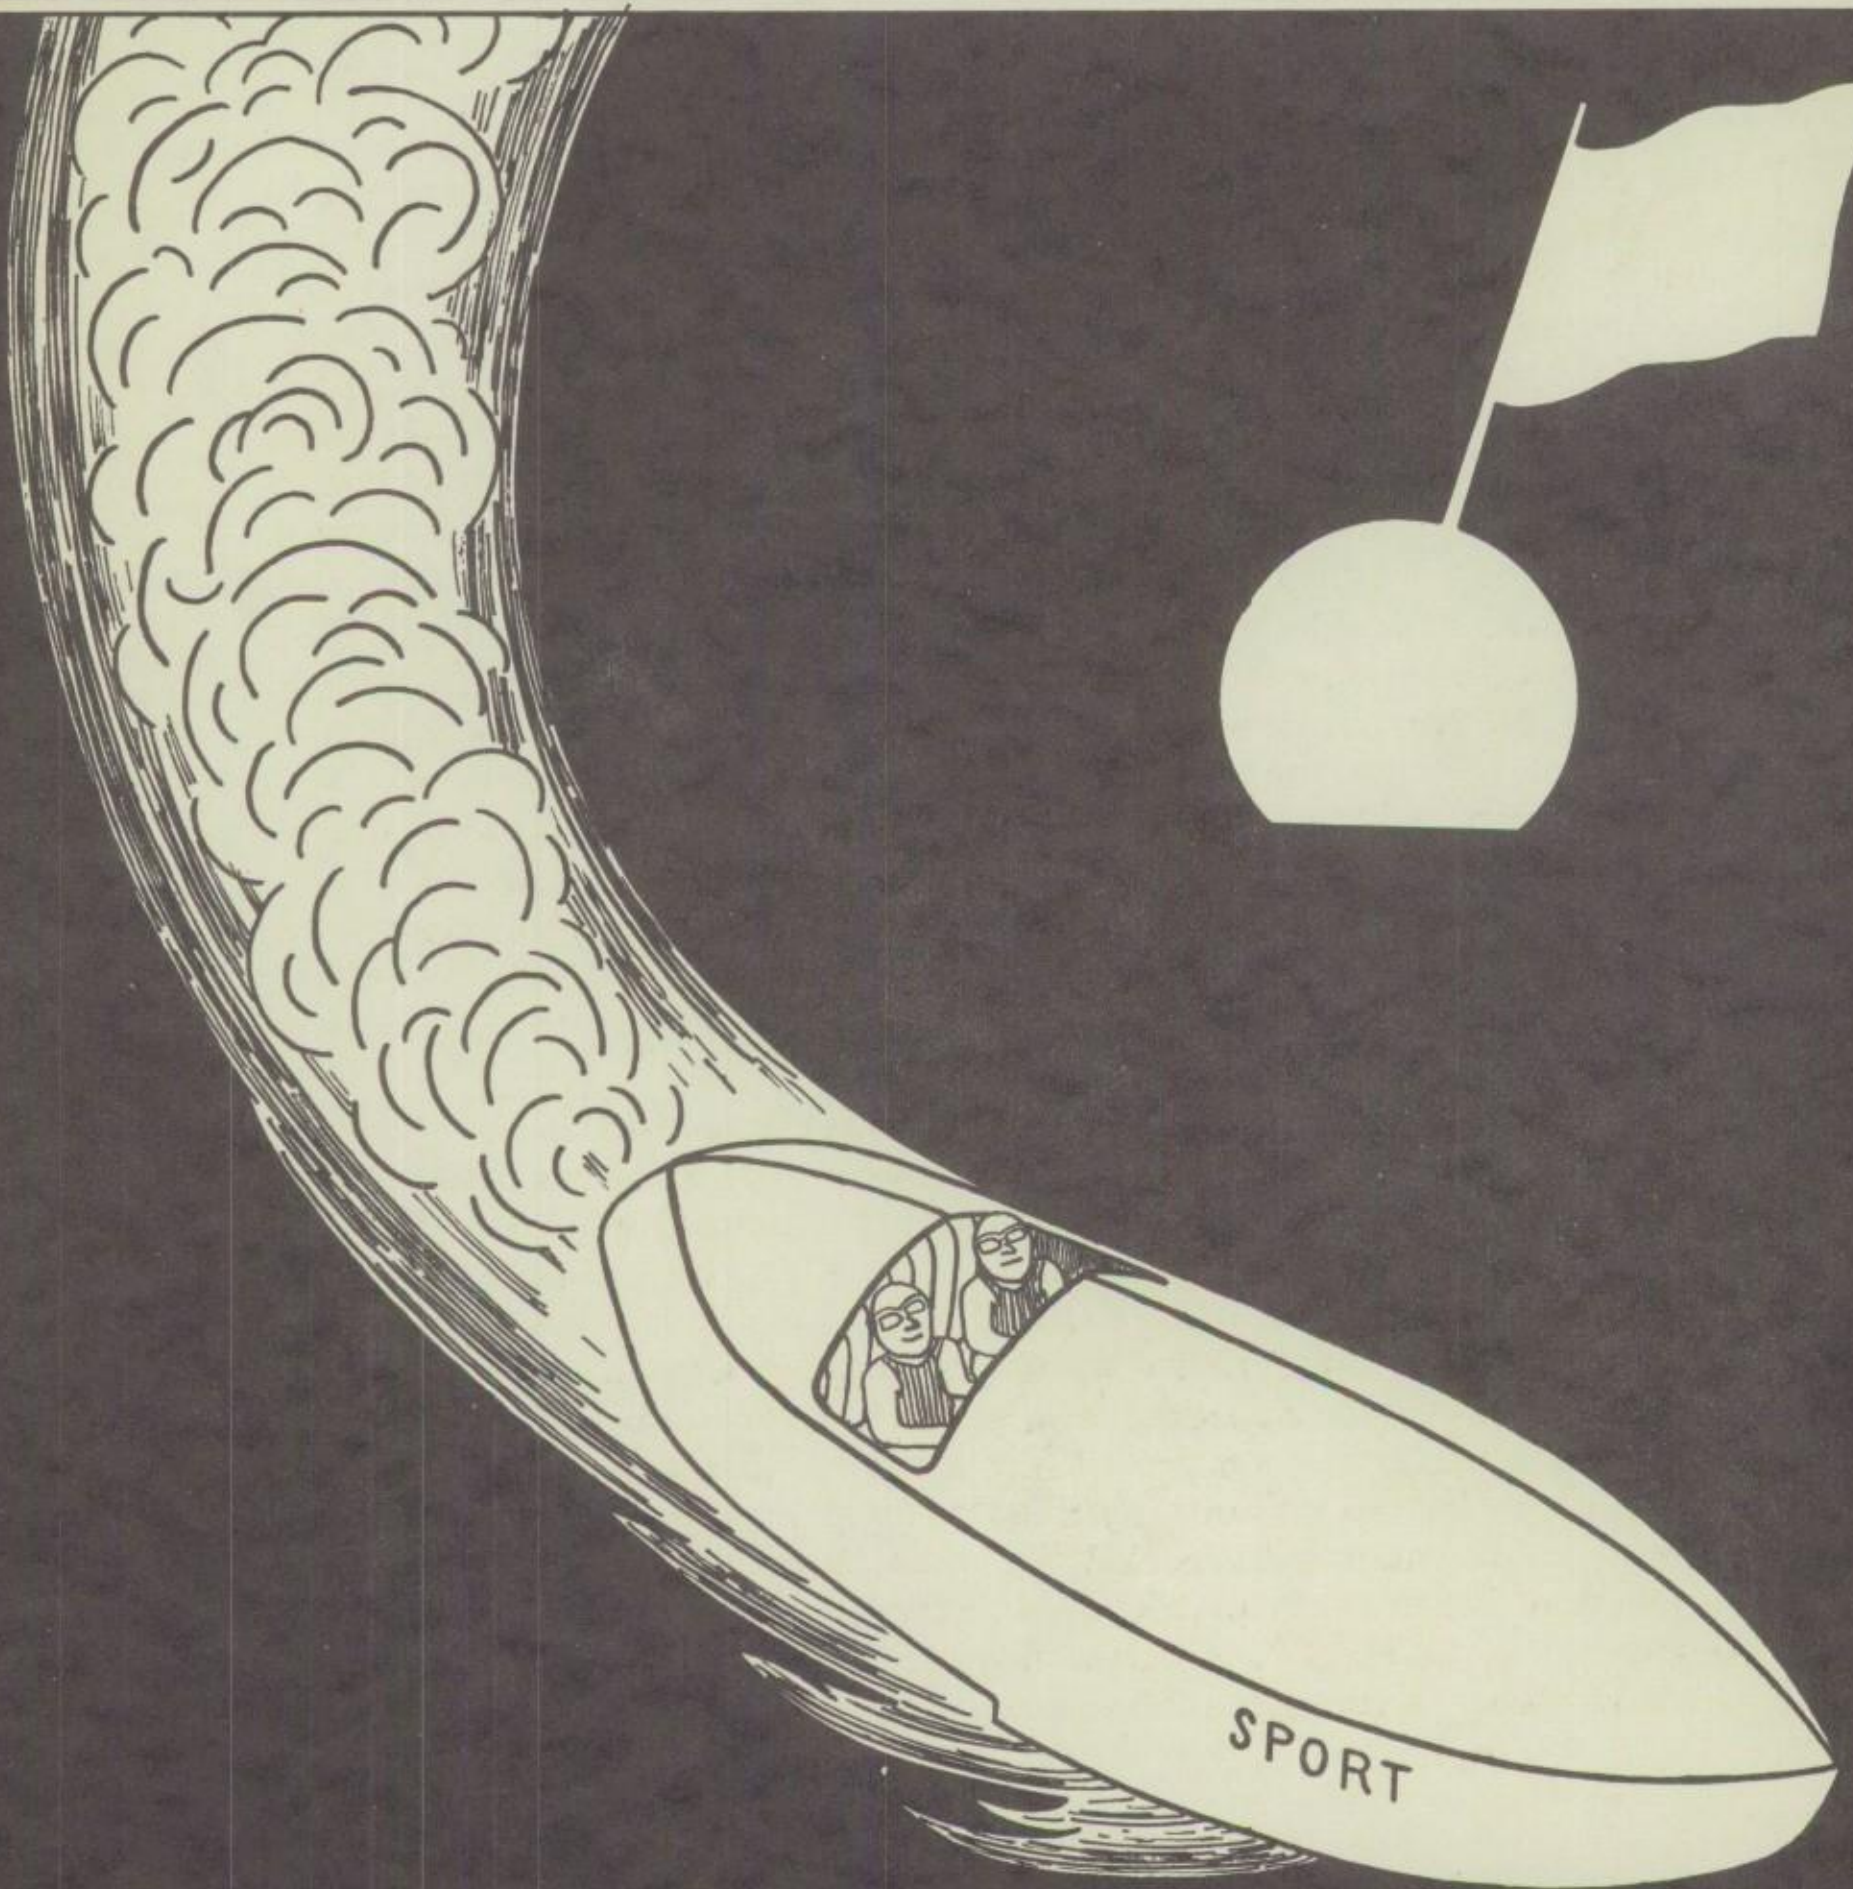

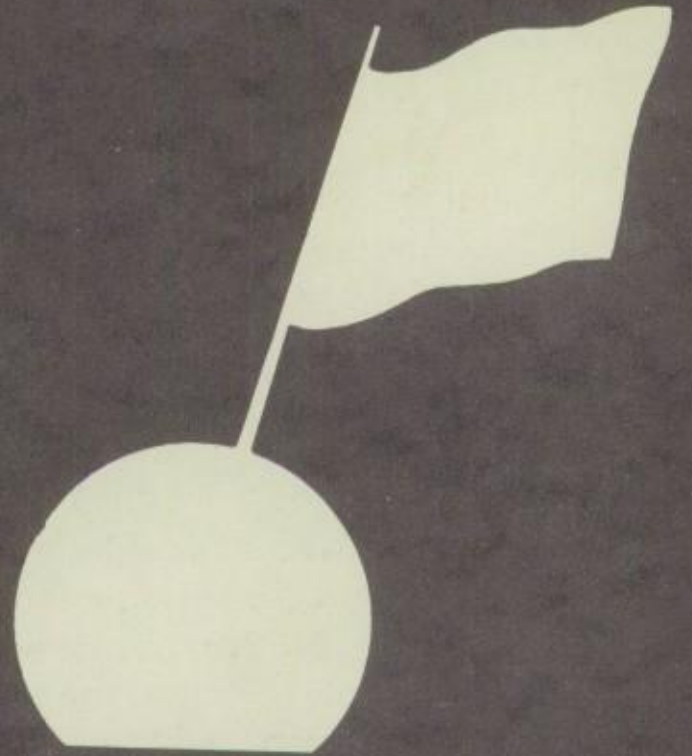

One of the most interesting of the speakers on the Northwest Assembly was James Williams, who gave a talk and demonstration on the properties of liquid air. Of the musical programs, the most heartily received was the concert given by four Jugoslavians, who played on their native instruments, the Tamburitzas. The concert included folksongs of Jugoslavia and America, and a group of popular melodies. The applause was so long and insistent that two encores were given. We were fortunate in having the "Abraham Lincoln Players" present a play on Lincoln three days before his birthday. Later in the year we were surprised to have a one ring circus on our stage which included a pony, several monkeys, and four dogs.

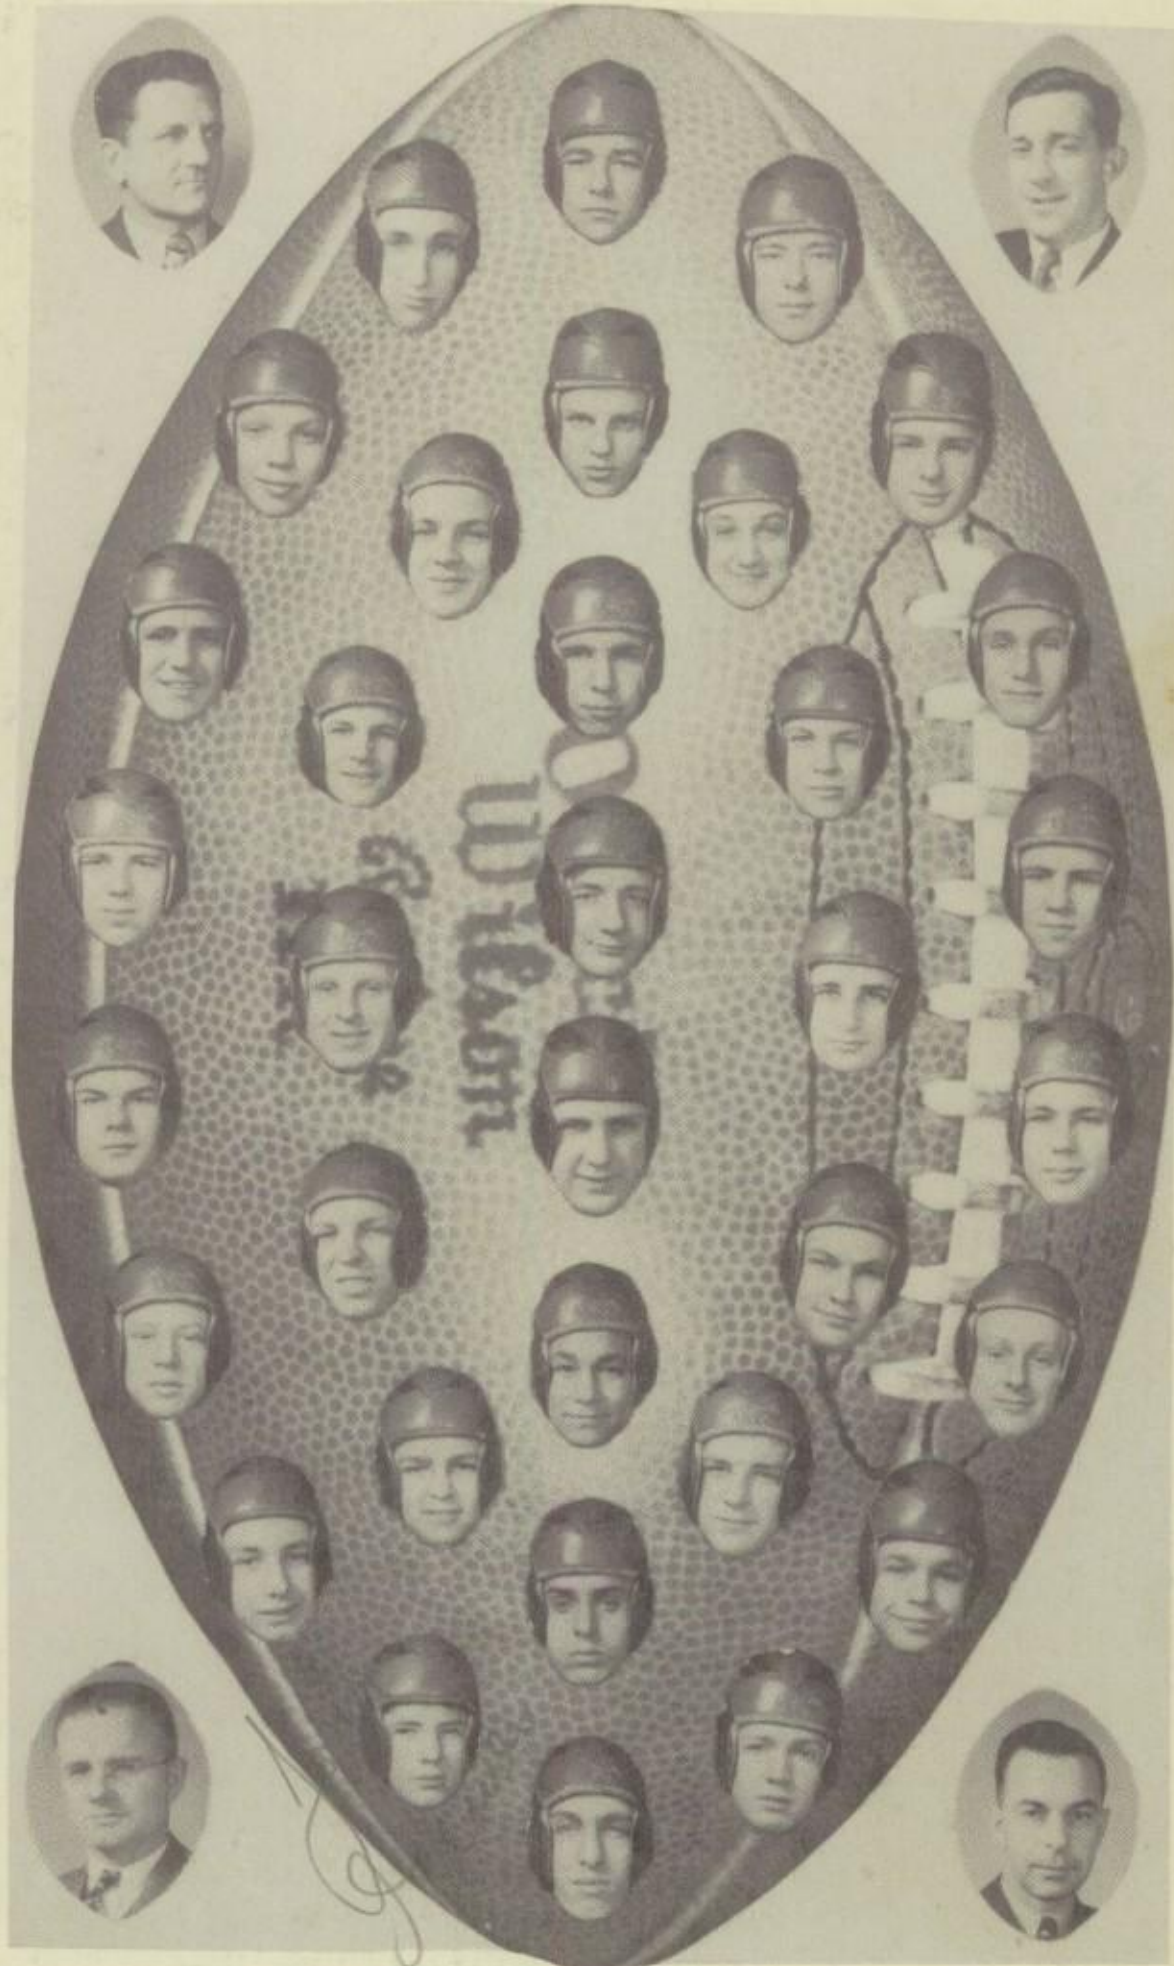

We are indebted to Miss Henchey and the members of the Drama Club for presenting three splendid one act plays at our regular assemblies. In all three performances it was clearly evident that much time and effort had been spent to give to the plays the finesse that characterized them all. Two novel assemblies were presented by the Annual Staff under the direction of Allan Sorenson. A radio broadcast originating in the Chemistry laboratory was released in the auditorium. Included in these broadcasts were advertising and musical talent.(?) The High School Band and Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Suda, each gave splendid performances during the year.

One of the high spots in the assemblies was the political assembly given by the Senior Civics classes, under supervision of Miss Jorgensen. The assembly preceded the actual voting the next day in school. Arthur Holmer was general chairman at that memorable occasion. He introduced such famous silver-tongued orators as James Hainer, Republican committee chairman, and Eugene Bock, Democratic committee chairman. Both speeches were well written and delivered with much fire. The cheers and jeers died somewhat when a talk concerning balloting was given by Allan Sorenson, and a speech for the minority parties was given by Marshall Olson. The appearance of the auditorium added the finishing touches to the spirit of the convention. Pictures of candidates for all important offices from both parties were on the stage, suspended from the balcony rail, and fastened on cords stretched across the auditorium.

Football Season

LUDINGTON

In one of the most interesting games of the season, Manistee yielded to Ludington to a final score of 34-0. The opposers, winners of the Big Six Title, scored their points on a line plunge, a spectacular run brought about by a pass over the scrimmage line, and two laterals. The extra point was made. In the third frame the victors intercepted a pass and scored again, taking the extra point. In the last quarter some excellent lateral passing gave Ludington two touchdowns and the extra points were also made. Manistee's spirit was commendable, but the team lacked something necessary to score.

PETOSKEY

The Chippewas took their second Big Six scalping to the score of 26-0. The only reason to be given for this outcome is that both Manistee's offense and defense were poor, and its line weak for the first time during the year. Drew, however, is to be praised for his work on offense and defense, and Hornkohl for his kicking. Manistee's only threat was its three first downs in a row in the second quarter, but despite all, they failed to score.

FREMONT

In one of the hardest games of the season Manistee was vanquished by the fast Fremont squad to the score of 14-0. Facing a strong downfield wind and playing on a wet field, the tribe allowed the visitors to score their points in the first quarter. After this the tribe was a different team, coming close to scoring in the third and fourth quarters, but lacking the drive to put it over. Two of Fremont's punts were blocked in the last frame, but the opportunity to score did not come.

CADILLAC

Hampered by the muddy condition of the field and other drawbacks, Manistee lost this game to the visitors to the score of 12-0. Despite a drizzling rain it proved to be one of the fastest games of the season. The Chippewas threatened in the first half, but in spite of their determination, failed to score. The visitors scored a touchdown in the second quarter and another, in the last few minutes of play, which was characterized by a spectacular run.

TRAVERSE CITY

Muffing its scoring chances by bad receiving and general incoordination, Manistee bowed again in defeat to a 21-0 score. The tribe's two chances to score came on passes. Catching a "sleeper", Rozga, with a clear field ahead, had the misfortune to slip and fall. In the third quarter, a pass receiver dropped one of Piotrowski's throws when on the goal line. In the last quarter Manistee opened up with a series of passes, but still was unable to score.

LUDINGTON

The game climaxed a series of defeats for Manistee. The team lacked a certain pep and force that is essential to a winning group. The opposers scored a touchdown in virtually every try with an average of a point a minute. The fact that the game was played on their own field may have been an advantage to the Ludington squad. It also may have been the tribe, because of its bad luck this season, resigned itself to defeat and failed to show their best. The final score was 60-0.

Basketball Season

ALUMNI

Manistee met the opening of it's basketball season by being defeated by the Alumni, 30-26. The quarter found the Alumni leading, 5-4, but the Redskins jumped forward to a score of 12-11 at the half. Despite it's spirit, Manistee dropped behind again. W. McKinley starred with nine points.

CADILLAC

Both teams showed excellent defense in this game. The first frame went to us, 2-1, followed by an interesting anti-climax, 5-5 at the half. The Chippewas led 13-11 at the third and clinched the game with the final score of 19-14, Exner scoring eight points.

SHELBY

This game constituted our second defeat. The visitors showed a five point lead at the close of the quarter. Manistee came to life in the second period, but still trailed 11-8 at the half. Although the tribe played hard in the last half, they failed to take the game. The final score was 24-19.

PETOSKEY

Probably the fastest of the season, this game showed some excellent playing with Anderson, high pointer, taking 13 of the points. The squad led throughout the game, the half witnessing a 15-8 score in our favor. Although the visitors redoubled their efforts, the Redskins won 31-20.

LUDINGTON

Manistee started strong in this game, but Ludington took the first quarter, 5-8. Edging closer to a tie in the second stanza, the team scored 5 points to the visitor's 4. By muffing the easy shots and making the hard ones, Manistee trailed at the half, 12-10. We narrowed the score down to 16-17 at the third but the visitor's out scored the tribe in the last quarter 6-2, the game being decided in the last few minutes of play. Final score 23-19.

TRAVERSE CITY

In closing the season Manistee bowed to Traverse in one of the fastest games in years. The visiting Trojans took a 5-3 lead in the first quarter, but the Chippewa's took the second period with a 13-9 setup. The visitors returned to the floor with a strengthened defense in the third and again we trailed, 16-18. Manistee brightened in the last quarter with a 20-22 setup at the "minute to play" time. Traverse took three more points closing to a 25-20 score. Exner scored nine of our points.

G. A. A.

G. A. A. — these three letters stand for the Girl's Athletic Association, one of the most active all-girl associations in high school. Forty girls joined the club this year, making its membership total about one hundred. These girls were initiated at a party held October 17.

The G. A. A. was organized in 1932 by Mrs. Dorothy Wiles Harden, and she has been succeeded by Miss Mary Mackin. Any girls with a "C" average in her studies and one hundred points is eligible. Points are earned by participation in various sports, both inside and outside of school. The first award which can be earned is a letter for eight hundred points; the second an emblem for fifteen hundred points; the third a pin for two thousand points; and the last award is a guard for twenty-five hundred points. This year the required points for individual awards have been slightly increased.

The G. A. A. board consists of Margaret Kraus, president; Dorothy Berglund, vice-president; Peggy Forth, secretary; Ardis Baldner, treasurer; Marge Wolters, volleyball manager; Peggy Meier, basketball manager; Kay Barnes, baseball manager; Phyllis Hansen, dancing and tumbling manager; Suzanne VanHise, tennis and publicity manager; and Jean O'Donnell track manager.

Each year the G. A. A. sponsors volleyball, basketball, baseball, and tennis tournaments. An annual track meet is also held. In the volleyball tournament, Eleanore James' team won the 8-9 grade tournament, and Peggy Meier's team was victorious in the 10-11-12 grade tournament.

The G. A. A. each year does a great deal to promote interest in athletics. Let us hope that it will continue to be such a huge success in our high school.

High School Carnival

From the moment you paused outside the entrance and heard the faint, far-distant rustlings and murmurs of the crowds in the building, until the dance was over, you thoroughly enjoyed yourself. When you opened the door, you felt the faint murmurs burst into an unbroken, impenetrable roar as you braced your mind and nerves much as you might brace yourself against the unsurpassed gusts of wind which sweep the northeast entrance walk. If you were fortunate, you might have been able to struggle through the maze of husky voiced "barkers" and ticket sellers whose boisterousness was not eased by two German bands, in which case you would have arrived at the auditorium and vaudeville. From this choice bit of fun you attempted to cross directly through the north and south traffic to the "Fun House of Mental Defugalties" which proved well worth the traffic-crossing feat. Swept on by the current, on waves of sound of high amplitude, you had your fortune told as you passed the landing and started the B floor tour.

You were helped up the steps by someone irresistable, intent on selling you chances on a cake, or was she telling you her feet ached? You could not read lips so you brought out your pocketbook and hoped you were going to win a cure for some badly trodden corns. Some refreshments, served with a smile, started you on to "Freaks of Nature and Curiosities From All Corners of the Earth." As you continued on to "The Museum of Unnatural History," you pulled to the curb long enough to cast some votes in the popularity contest. Very enticing salesmen added a new attraction to the ancient sport of angling and you tried your luck in the "Fishpond." The ever present clanging of a German band, or two, carried you up another flight of stairs. A visit to the "Dionnes" had you rolling in the aisles. Still shaking the laughter cramps out of the pit of your stomach, you entered the study hall to see the "Adventures of the Fuzzledowns." Unique vocal interpretations and even more unique dancing characterized this last act visited.

When you came out into the hall again, you noticed it was strangely unpeopled. Why? Of course, the dance in the gymnasium had begun. The dancing had paused, as you arrived. They were about to select the winners of the cake and the pair of skates. Your usual bad luck was with you and you watched some smiling person carry away the spoils. Soon after this, King Samuel and Queen Paula, winners of the popularity contest, led the grand march around the gymnasium. The music was splendid, and a successful dance concluded a successful carnival. The last couples strolled from the dusty gymnasium and ploughed their way through the layers of "janitor worry" in form of carefully arranged advertisements which now littered the halls and the lights in the school were dimmed.

One thing You Won't Have To Learn

— thanks to Cheap Electricity

You may well be thankful that even with all the modern education here at Manistee High School — still, today's students, most of them, will NEVER KNOW what it meant to live before the advent of modern living standards.

Electricity — cheaper, more useful than ever — is playing a great part in contributing to better home life and public economy.

The average price of domestic electricity supplied by this company compares favorably with any in the United States. Cheap? — yes. But it is in what it does, the "extra values" of helpfulness, that it attains the finest in public service.
